

Position: Tour Guide

Reporting Relationships

Report directly to Operational Manager

Job Description:

How does snowshoeing, hiking, and snowmobiling sound like for a career? Telling stories of the landscape. How does working with a diverse group of individuals to create an experience of a life-time sound? The opportunity to grow in your career. How about a chance to be part of a family owned company who are active members of the community? If that sounds like a team you want to be a part of, we'd love to hear from you!

YOUR VIBE

You can make individuals in a crowd feel special. You are committed in helping create memorable experiences for every guest. Greet every guest with a genuine smile, and are ready to take the lead. Organization is your thing, along with punctuality. You are committed to your job and are willing to learn and grow when the opportunity arises.

YOUR JOB

- Leading a group of individuals from groups of 6-30
- Speaking, giving directions, and telling stories about the land with your energetic personality
- Assist in organizing tours
- Ensure safety of guests
- Translating between English and Chinese (Mandarin or Cantonese) is preferred

Qualifications

- Please note if you've had any previous experience as a tour guide
- First Aid
- High School or equivalent education is considered an asset
- Customer service experience is an asset
- Class 4 drivers license is an asset
- Photography skills are an asset
- Musical talent is an asset

Special working conditions

- Flexible time schedule
- Valid Work Permit
- Ability to work long days during the season
- Note: Criminal record check will be contingent for hiring

Additional Information

$17 - $20 depending on experience and availability